Documentation Form reviewed; determination made that judicial action is warranted

Automatic Letter of Warning sent by Judicial Officer

Student(s) charged with policy violations and sent a Judicial Allegation letter (via Hope email)

Student may request an meeting with the Judicial Officer who sent the Automatic Letter or Warning.

Student meets with Judicial Officer for Judicial Review.

During the review, the student reviews the documentation, provides input on how the case may be resolved (*The College reserves the right to refer a particular case to a judicial board), and enters a plea to each of the allegations. During the Judical Review, the student may choose to:

- -Admit responsibility for the allegations and request the Judicial Officer impose a sanction
 - -Deny responsibility for one or more of the allegations and request an administrative hearing
- -Deny responsibilty for one or more of the allegations and request a hearing before the Student/Faculty Judicial Board

Student has administrative or Student/Faculty Judicial Board hearing to determine responsibility

- The Administrative hearing is frequently iniated during the Judicial Review. Board hearings are held on a separate day as the Judicial Review
- In both the Administrative and Board proceedings, the student is given an opportunity to respond to the allegations.

Student Found "responsible" and issued educational sanction(s).

Student found "not responsible" and no action taken

Student may appeal to the Vice President/Dean of Students or if the sanction is suspension or explusion, the Student Standing and Appeals Committee
