

HOPE COLLEGE

Declaration of Finances for Non-U.S. Applicants

Instructions: Hope College requires each international student to submit a declaration of finances form. Please complete the requested information and submit this directly to the Hope College Admissions Office, 69 East 10th Street, Holland, MI 49423, USA.

Hope College attempts to financially assist international students in their studies, however funds for scholarships are very limited. When scholarship money is awarded, it is done so on the basis of the strength of academic record, SAT scores, TOEFL, recommendations and extra-curricular involvement. All documents required for a complete admission file must be received on or before January 31 to assure consideration for an academic scholarship.
