Hope College
Scholarships for Science Majors

http://www.hope.edu/academic/sstem

Hope College is pleased to announce a special grant from the National Science Foundation to support community college students continuing their education in Hope’s highly acclaimed science program.

Biology
Chemistry
Computer Science
Engineering
Geology
Mathematics
Physics

Who: Community college transfers majoring in the sciences. The greater your financial need, the more you will benefit.

What: Significant financial aid, mentoring and orientation programs, and paid summer research.

Why: Hope College sciences are nationally recognized. New $36 million science facility. Placement rates into graduate and professional schools are exceptional. Supportive faculty. Small classes.

Learn More: Contact Dr. Catherine Mader to learn more about this program and to arrange a visit. mader@hope.edu or 616.395.7114