Meet Your Orientation Directors

Dani

Home Country Honduras
Year in College Senior
Majors Sociology & Global Studies
(Global Cultures and Societies Concentration)

Hey! I'm Dani, and I'm happy to be your orientation director! What I am most excited about orientation is helping you all feel welcome and supported as you get used to a new place and culture. I know it can be a big change, and I'm here to help make it a little easier along with my cool orientation assistants and co-director!

One of my favorite parts of orientation is the ice breakers—although they sound scary, they help everyone relax, laugh, and start making new friends. I also love the kayaking trip! It's a great mix of teamwork and fun, and paddling hard and laughing a lot. It's also a great way to bond or maybe even compete to get to the finish line;)

As your OD, I hope to help you feel good about starting this next chapter. I want to be someone you can count on not just during this week of orientation but throughout the school year! I'll do my best to help you with any questions or concerns so that you can enjoy the start of college. You belong here!

Fun Fact I have two pet turtles named Sammy and Shelly!

What excites or delights you about Orientation?

Getting to meet and help prepare the new students for a wonderful time at Hope!

Favorite International Orientation activity

The Explore Michigan trip - especially the Mackinac Island trip because I love the views.

What do you hope to accomplish with the new students?

I hope to be a good resource and help the new internationals feel ready to be freshmen.

Something unique about yourself

Although I'm from Brazil, I was actually born and raised in Thailand!

Major: Studio Art

Year in College: Sophomore

What excites or delights you about Orientation?

Getting to experience new places - outdoor beauty with the new international students!

Favorite International Orientation activity

I love exploring Macinac Island, because I grew up going to that island in the summertime as a kid, and I love biking, hiking, and exploring the downtown area.

What do you hope to accomplish with the new students?

I want to be someone who they can turn to in the first few hard months of college- and I also want to help build an international community that they can feel welcome in.

Something unique about yourself

I brew kombucha!

Annabelle

Born in the US, but grew up in
El Salvador, Ireland, & Taiwan

Majors: Chemistry & Biblical Studies

Year in College: Junior

What excites you about International Orientation?

I love the community the orientation gives you. It was so well done during my year because it allowed a group of 20 people to know everyone and connect well immediately. I am delighted to be able to help foster that this upcoming year.

Favorite International Orientation activity

My favorite activity was the small minigames that helped us learn each other's names and grow a sort of fun competitive atmosphere. It was really great. I remember specifically the blanket splitting half of the room and dropping it before trying to guess the other person's name before the other. I also remember the fun cup game where someone would call out different body parts to touch until you got to 'cup' and tried to grab it. That was so much fun.

What do you hope to accomplish with the new students?

I hope to give the students a great community and show them that college is a fun experience. I want to show them that they can pursue their interests and be seen, regardless of where they come from.

Something unique about yourself I can knit with my feet.

What excites or delights you about Orientation?

Giving a hand to the new international students so that they can make Home their new home.

Favorite International Orientation activity

Biking around the island was a delightful idea.

What do you hope to accomplish with the new students?

I want them to feel welcome and build trust so that they have someone to rely on their first college year.

Something unique about yourself

I lift hearts and weights.

Meet Your Orientation Assistants

Hi! My name is Joy and I come from the Philippines. I am currently studying civil engineering here at Hope College and I am a sophomore. I will be an international OA and I am excited to meet new students from all over the world.

Favorite International Orientation activity

My favorite activity during International Student Orientation was going around Mackinac Island, riding my bicycle, and eating fudge.

What do you hope to accomplish with the new students?

I hope that I can unite different students and create lasting friendships during International Orientation.

Something unique about yourself

Lastly, something unique about myself is that I am Filipino but can only cook Thai food...
