MICHAEL B. PETROVICH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

A scholarship to aid students who plan to spend a semester or year studying abroad, and who will spend all or part of the study period in eastern Europe including Russia and the states of the former Soviet Union (first preference) or western Europe (second preference). The recipient will be chosen according to the following criteria: academic achievement, place of study and travel, and financial need. Submit application to the Department of History, which administers the scholarship. Deadline: April 15 for a program starting next fall semester and October 15 for a program starting next spring semester.

The program must be an official Hope approved program. Students submitting the application should have already completed the required Hope Off-Campus Study Application to the International Education Office.

Directions/Procedures:

- 1. Complete the application.
- 2. Write and attach a 2-page essay telling why you want to study abroad, why you have chosen the particular program and particular country, and how this travel/study relates to your major, to your intellectual growth, and to your career plans.
- 3. Submit to the History department (338 Lubbers Hall) by:
- APRIL 15 for fall semester or year programs
- OCTOBER 15 for sprint semester programs
- 4. Finalists can expect to be interviewed by the History Department.
