Welcome to the Hope College Department of Music

Dear Hope College Student Music Makers,

This handbook contains policies and other information that should be useful primarily, but not exclusively, to music majors and minors. You will find helpful information on performance studies (lessons), end-of-semester juries, music major entrance and continuance requirements, performance requirements for music majors and minors, recital attendance requirements, practice rooms, finding a collaborative pianist, work study opportunities, and more. It is updated yearly and we value input from you regarding content, organization, clarity, or any other ways in which we can make the handbook more useful. Please bring any suggestions to the current Department of Music chair.

Complete degree requirements may be found in the College Catalog. If you need further clarification, please feel free to ask your faculty advisor or another music faculty member.

Best wishes for an exciting and rewarding year!
Department of Music Faculty

Introduction

First, here are definitions of terms we use in the Department of Music with which you might not be familiar:

“Performance Class”

The Jazz, Keyboard, String, Voice, and Wind/Percussion Areas meet several times each semester for “performance classes.” Here, students studying within those areas perform for each other. You receive comments from peers and faculty members. Performance classes are part of the MUS 080 course.

“Studio Class”

This is a meeting (often weekly) when you get together with other students scheduled by your applied teacher, and play for each other, or discuss matters relevant to your area of performance.

“Departmental Recital”

It is a recital comprising several students performing either as soloists or as a member of a chamber group as a part of the 080 requirement.

“Jury”

A jury is the final exam of a course in applied music. Juries are required of every student taking applied lessons, and will be held beginning of Final Exam week each semester. The syllabus your applied teacher gives you includes the expectations for your jury. The written comments made by the faculty hearing your jury are kept on file in the Music Office. A student presenting a degree recital within 6 weeks before the end of the semester may be excused from playing a jury or have a modified jury at the discretion of their applied faculty instructor in consultation with the area head.

Declaring a Major or Minor in Music

Please feel free to contact the Department of Music Chair or your music academic advisor with any questions you have about your plan of study and degree requirements. You should declare your intention to be a music major by the fourth semester of enrollment at Hope. (A minor in music may be declared at any time.)

We offer the following majors:

- Bachelor of Arts in with a Major in Music
- Bachelor of Music in Jazz Performance
- Bachelor of Music in Performance

You are strongly encouraged to discuss your plans with your advisor, applied teacher, and other faculty who have professional expertise in your area of interest.

What you must to do:

Procedures for declaring a major or minor:

1. Forms are submitted electronically.
2. If declaring a major, in addition to submitting the major declaration form, submit a brief statement about your goals and reasons for pursuing a music major. Please submit your statement to music@hope.edu.

Performance Expectations and Concert Attendance requirements for all majors and minors

All students working towards a major or minor must enroll in MUS 080, a 0-credit course. Below is a summary of the number of semesters required:

Music Minor or Jazz Minor: 4 semesters

Performance Class and Departmental Student Recital Requirements

B.Mus & BA students must perform as follows:

Solo Recitals: Degree Requirements, Scheduling, Duration and Content, etc.

The following degrees require recitals:

Bachelor of Music, Performance: 2 recitals, one junior, one senior

Bachelor of Music, Education (Instrumental Music and Vocal Music): 1 recital in either junior or senior year
Bachelor or Arts in Music: No recital requirement.

Bachelor of Music, Performance & Education, must have at least five completed semesters of hour long lessons prior to giving a recital.

Degree recital requirements

Before presenting any recital sponsored by the Department, you must complete the following requirements:

- You must have declared a major in a music degree program to present a recital in fulfillment of that degree;
- You must be enrolled in applied music, and have the approval of your applied instructor;
- Prior to the recital, you must have performed on at least two departmental student recitals in previous semesters;
- Have satisfactorily passed a pre-recital hearing a maximum of three weeks before your recital (see below for pre-recital hearing information);
- You must submit a completed and legible program at the recital hearing. (Include full title, full composer names(s) and dates. [NB: Include also the names of any other performers involved.]
- Upon completion of a successful recital hearing, this program should immediately be turned into the Music Office Manager.
- Program notes for degree recitals are required.

Pre-Recital Hearing

- This is scheduled within three weeks of your recital.
- You must have the complete recital program ready to perform with any required accompaniment.
- Your program notes must be presented at the hearing.
- Your applied instructor and at least two other faculty members will hear it. They will immediately decide whether to fully approve, approve with reservation, or not approve the recital.
- If the recital is not approved, you must reschedule it, and pass another pre-recital hearing.

Scheduling a Recital

- You must consult with the Music Office Manager to select a tentative date. Immediately complete the "Application to Present a Recital Sponsored by the Department of Music," and return it to the office within two weeks of scheduling your tentative reservation. [NB: Failure to do this means the reservation will be canceled.]

- Fall recitals must be scheduled by August 1; Spring recitals by November 15. [NB: After these deadlines have passed, the date may be changed only with permission of the Music Department Chair.]
- You must consult with your pianist before scheduling a recital.
- Student recitals are scheduled in the Recital Hall, Concert Hall, or Dimnent Chapel as follows:
Monday-Thursday at 6 p.m.
Fridays at 6 p.m. or 8 p.m., and
Saturdays at 2 p.m. or 4 p.m. This would limit the number of recitals on any given day to no more than 2.
- The recital may not include more than of 60 minutes of music
- Required degree recitals take precedence over non-required recitals

Summary of Recital Requirements for Majors:

Performance majors: 2 Required Recitals

- Senior recital – full length recital, 40 – 50 minutes of music, which should be about 75% standard solo repertoire. There may be an intermission.
- Junior recital – joint or solo recital 30 – 40 minutes of music, which should be about 50% standard solo repertoire. There may be an intermission.

Education majors: 1 Required Recital

- This recital may be held either in the junior or senior year. It may not be given simultaneously with student teaching. It should contain 30-50 minutes of music, of which 50% must be standard solo repertoire. No intermission is necessary.
- While only one recital is required, it is highly recommended that education majors perform two 30-50 minute recitals (50% standard solo repertoire), one in the junior year, and one in the senior year. (NB: A recital may not be given during the student teaching semester.)

Note: At the discretion of the applied instructor and approval of the Area Head, a student performing a recital might be excused from the semester jury.

Recital Etiquette

- Because they are official permanent academic documents required by NASM, printed programs may not contain expressions of gratitude, dedications, etc.
- Encores and personal remarks are not allowed at the recital, because recitals are recorded and archived for purposes of NASM accreditation.
- Flowers as stage decorations or flowers are not permitted at recitals.
- Flash photography is not permitted at recitals.
- Personal expressions of thanks and as presentation of flowers, are appropriate at a reception following the recital.
- Performance attire of all recital performers should be consistent with current professional standards in their discipline.

Food Services for Recital Receptions

Fourth Semester Assessment Jury - required of all BM students.

This special jury assesses your progress after four semesters of college-level study. If you are a BM student, you must pass this special jury in order to continue in the program. The examination is conducted by the faculty in your primary performance area. It takes place during Finals Week. Each performance area determines its own criteria, repertoire, technique, etc. If you don't meet the expectations, your examiners will recommend one of the following:

- You will have to take the jury again the following semester for re-evaluation; or
- You will not receive the endorsement of the music faculty to continue as a music major.

- Sight-reading will be included in the Jury examination.

Piano Proficiency Exam required of all majors

- If you are a Bachelor of Music student, you must successfully pass a piano proficiency exam.
- You may request to take the exam before enrollment in all the required keyboard skills. If you are successful, the keyboard skills courses will be waived. A placement exam is held on the first day of classes in the fall semester. If you are successful, the appropriate keyboard skills course will be waived with either a class substitution or credit by exam.
- Except for jazz majors, the exam is a "traditional" piano proficiency exam.
- Jazz majors take a jazz piano proficiency exam.
- You normally take the exam at the conclusion of your keyboard skills study, or in the case of jazz majors, at the end of your jazz piano study.
- If you are unable to pass the proficiency exam at the conclusion of the required courses, you must retake Music 198 or Music 298 to continue learning toward passing the proficiency exam.
- The "traditional" Piano Proficiency is offered over the course of the Spring Semester (Music 198 or Music 298) to those currently enrolled in keyboard skills.

Accompanist Policies

All requests for collaborative pianists should be made with the Coordinator of Accompanying. Please use the Collaborative Pianist Request Google Form. Email requests will also be accepted.

Once a collaborative pianist is assigned:

- It is your student responsibility to make contact by email.
- Submit your score AT LEAST one month in advance of the performance. [NB: Late requests which do not allow the pianist reasonable time may not be fulfilled.]
- Hard copies of music can be left in the Coordinator of Accompanying mailbox or outside their office.
- PDFs of the music may be uploaded in the Google Form (linked above).

Expectations

- You must come to rehearsals well-prepared;
- You must consult with your pianist before scheduling any “performance” - including juries.
- You must give at least a week’s notice when you need a pianist to attend lessons, a studio class, etc.
- If you fail to show up for a rehearsal, studio class, etc., you will be required to reimburse the Department of Music. [Check the current rates with the Coordinator. Exceptions will be made in the case of a documented medical emergency.]
- If your reimbursement is not received within three weeks before your jury, your assigned pianist will not be permitted to perform with you.
- If you have a pattern of missing rehearsals, the privilege of having an assigned collaborative pianist may be revoked for up to one year.

Maximum Rehearsal Time with an Assigned Staff Pianist

All time spent with your assigned pianist (including the recital itself) counts toward the maximums outlined below.

Because there are limits, it is essential that you use your time frugally and efficiently.

During the semester in which a degree recital is given, the maximum times are indicated below. [NB: In the semester preceding the recital semester, the maximum number of hours is half what is indicated.]

- Senior: 14 hours
- Junior: 11 hours
- Pre-approved “non-required” degree recitals: 8 hours
- Shared recitals (“half recitals”) are allocated half of the above.

The Department of Music will provide a collaborative pianist to students at no charge, based on availability, for the following performances:

1. Degree Recital
2. Concerto/Aria Competition and Musical Showcase Audition
3. Performance Class and Departmental Recital
4. Jury
5. Masterclass hosted by the Department of Music

The Department will not provide a collaborative pianist for the following projects:

- Non-degree recital
- Competition or audition that is not hosted by the Department of Music
- Grad school or festival prescreening recordings
- Personal recording projects

If a student would like to hire one of Hope's staff pianists for outside events/recordings, they will have to arrange that with the pianist themselves.

Requesting a Collaborative Pianist

All requests for collaborative pianists should be made through the Coordinator of Collaborative Piano, Christina Krause, by submitting the Collaborative Pianist Request Google Form (<https://forms.gle/JnhZkC5MptsTuLz5>). Singers do not need to fill out this form (see "Voice Area" section below).

Once a pianist is assigned, it is the student's responsibility to make initial contact with their pianist.

Submitting Music

PDFs of music can be uploaded in the Google Form (above). Hard copies of music can be left outside Professor Krause's office, JHMILR #243, or in her mailbox in the music office. Students are responsible for getting music to their pianists as early as possible, but no later than one month in advance of the performance. Degree recital music should be given to pianists 2-3 months in advance, so there is adequate time to prepare for lessons and the recital hearing. Late submissions are not guaranteed a pianist, and will be fulfilled on a case-by-case basis.

Voice Area

Voice students do not need to fill out the Collaborative Pianist Request Google Form. A student or staff pianist will be assigned to them at the beginning of the semester and work with them for the entire semester. Student pianists will attend all voice lessons after midterms. Staff pianists will attend up to four voice lessons per semester (unless that student is preparing a junior or senior recital - see recital limits below).

Voice students must still check with their assigned pianist to make sure they are available before signing up for any performances (performance class, Departmental recital, concerto/aria competition, etc).

Expectations

- Both the vocalist/instrumentalist and pianist are expected to attend rehearsals with their music well-prepared.
- No performances or juries will be scheduled without first consulting the pianist.
- Students should give at least a week's advance notice when needing a pianist to attend lessons, studio classes, etc.

Recitals

Students who are planning a degree recital should discuss preferred recital hearing and recital dates with their private instructor and pianist.

Junior, and senior recitals are accompanied by staff pianists (student pianists may only play for recitals with approval from the private studio instructor and coordinator of collaborative piano). The maximum hours allowed for recital preparation in the recital semester are: junior (11 hours), senior (14 hours). In the semester prior to the recital semester, half the number of hours will be allowed as a maximum: junior (5.5 hours), senior (7 hours). Pianists and students should keep track of these hours. All lessons, rehearsals, studio classes, dress rehearsals, and the recital itself count toward these maximums.

Shared recitals (half recitals) will be given half of the above maximum hours.

Cancellations/No-Shows

A minimum of 24 hours' notice is required for the cancellation of a scheduled rehearsal or lesson.

If a student fails to come to a mutually agreed-upon rehearsal or lesson without telling their collaborative pianist ahead of time, the pianist should email both Professor Krause (krausec@hope.edu) and the private lesson instructor. The student will be given a warning.

If a student misses any future rehearsals/lessons, the student must reimburse the Department of Music for the full scheduled time. The pianist should charge the Department on their timecard and inform Professor Krause and the private lesson instructor. Reimbursement rates are $15/hour for student pianists and $50.50/hour for staff pianists. Payment can be made by cash or check (made payable to Hope College) and must be received prior to juries/exam week. If payment is not received, the collaborative pianist will not be permitted to accompany the student for their jury.

If a student misses more than three rehearsals/lessons without communicating to their pianist, accompanying privileges will be revoked for the semester.

Collaborative Pianist Issues

If a collaborative pianist is unprepared for lessons/rehearsals (when music was given adequately in advance), fails to come to agreed-upon rehearsals, or any other issues arise, please inform Professor Krause (krausec@hope.edu). The situation will be addressed and another collaborative pianist will be assigned, if necessary.

Department of Music Competitions

Concerto-Aria Competition

The Concerto-Aria Competition is held annually at Hope College. It gives students who are studying applied music an opportunity to perform as a soloist with the Hope College Orchestra. Students must be enrolled in applied study with a Hope College music professor at the time of the auditions and performance. The competition auditions are held in November. The Concerto-Aria Concert is scheduled in February.

Concert-Aria Competition Guidelines and Audition Form

Musical Showcase

Each year, the Hope College Department of Music presents a gala concert of student ensemble and solo performances. Competitive auditions for soloists and small ensembles are normally held in November. The Showcase is normally held in February.

Students auditioning and selected for Showcase solos and/or chamber ensembles must be enrolled in lessons and chamber groups for both semesters. Chamber ensembles must have a faculty coach that meets with the ensemble weekly.

Other Department of Music Policies

Instrument Lockers

Lockers are assigned by the Music Office (Rm. 163) based on need.

Please contact the Music Office for the assignment.

Depending on availability, lockers can be checked out at any time during the academic year.

You are responsible for cleaning out your locker when you leave campus.

If you wish to use the same locker for the following academic year, request a renewed assignment from the Music Office Manager.

Instrument Loan Policy

Please consult the current Area Head if you wish to borrow an instrument.

Wind Instruments: Contact Wind/Percussion Area Head

String Instruments: Contact String Area Head

Applied Lessons

Any student regardless of major can enroll in applied lessons. Music majors and minors should consult the appropriate degree requirements for the requisite credits for each degree. DAA recipients are required to enroll in applied lessons as specified by their DAA scholarship letters. Each applied professor should have written expectations in their course syllabus for preparation and practicing for their respective studios. Below are recommended practice time guidelines based on credit enrollment.

DAA/Scholarship recipients can enroll in applied lessons in other voice/instrument areas, but must continue to enroll in applied lessons in their primary instrument as specified by their DAA scholarship letter.

Personal Student Practice Time: Recommended Guidelines

This may include research/analysis, listening, and memorization time. It does not include ensemble work, studio class or lesson time.

- 1 credit lessons = 3–6 hours per week
- 2 credit lessons = 6–12 hours per week (Music Education majors only)
- 3 credit lessons = 10–21 hours per week

Studio Change Policy

In order to start the process for a studio change, students must email the Music Department Chair the name of their current applied faculty, the name of the proposed applied faculty, and the reason for requesting the change (students wishing to request a change in applied studio faculty are encouraged to first have a conversation with their current applied faculty). The Chair will call a meeting of the faculty involved. The Chair will inform the student in writing of the decision and copy the faculty involved and the Dean. The student may appeal the decision in writing to the Dean within 30 days of the Chair's decision. An approved studio change would take effect at the beginning of the following semester.

Practice Room Reservations

Vacant rooms may be used by the first music student who arrives to use it.

A reserved room is considered vacant if you do not appear within ten minutes of the scheduled time.

Other Room Reservations

For other room reservations, faculty members must initiate and make the reservation. Students may not initiate or make general room reservations (e.g., Recital Hall, Concert Hall, etc.).

Student Employment

You have several ways of being employed in the Department of Music. Other than office assistants, all positions require specialized knowledge or skills. Faculty does all hiring requiring specialized skills.

Following is a list of possible areas of student employment opportunities:

- Teaching assistants
- Ensemble librarians and set-up crew
- Office assistants
- Collaborative pianists

Private Teaching by Music Students

Students are not allowed to teach private lessons in the Jack H. Miller Center for Musical Arts because the college does not carry insurance for instruction not associated with college courses.

Use of the Building During Breaks

Students must be enrolled in music courses in the current or following semester. The building will be open during business hours only. Organ and practice suite require room reservations.
