A minor in American Ethnic Studies is designed to introduce students to critical methodologies and scholarly approaches to understanding the diverse historical and cultural issues relating to race and ethnicity in the United States.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

American Ethnic Studies students are encouraged to gain and develop skills to research, analyze and reflect on the heritage of racialized ethnic cultures in America. Such study will develop citizens, participants and activists who have views of their larger mission in life and who strive daily in the pursuit of justice and equality, both locally and globally. Course requirements and options available to minor candidates are as follows.

MINORS

American Ethnic Studies

A minor in American Ethnic Studies (AES) consists of 24 credits of coursework:

Minor candidates must complete 12 credits of foundational courses, 8 credits focusing on a specific American ethnic group (African American, Asian American, Latina/o American or Native American) and a 4-credit capstone course (3 credits for an internship or research project and one credit for a capstone seminar). The capstone seminar course will include both meetings while enrolled for an internship or research project and utilization of assessment documentation from earlier courses intended to assure ongoing communication with each student declaring the minor and facilitation and implementation of the program’s assessment process.

I. FOUNDATIONAL COURSES (12 credits)

A. Introduction (4 credits required of all minors)

III. CAPSTONE REQUIREMENT (4 credits)

This requirement can be met in either of two ways:

1. An internship, approved by the AES director, in which students are immersed in a U.S. ethnic minority culture (preferably one involving the minority group emphasis chosen by the student) OR

2. An extensive research project focusing on one of the ethnic minority groups in the United States (preferably one involving the minority group emphasis chosen by the student). The project can take either an interdisciplinary or disciplinary approach. The project must be approved by the AES director prior to the student beginning any formal research and must adhere to all aspects of the institutions research protocol.

Note: Students who selected this course to meet the Humanities requirement in the Foundations section must take the two other courses in this category to fulfill this requirement.
COURSES

AMERICAN ETHNIC STUDIES

AES 210 - Introduction to American Ethnic Studies
This course will address the basic terminology of the field of American Ethnic Studies. Students will learn the meanings and various perceptions of culture, race, ethnicity, social class and gender. They will also develop an understanding of the relationships of all these concepts within both the individual and in society. These concepts will be analyzed through a multidisciplinary approach that examines both the social science and humanities contributions to these constructs. Various ways of thinking and approaches to research methodology will be explored.
Credits Awarded:  4
Terms Offered:  Fall, Spring

AES 490 - Independent Study
Independent research of an advanced nature can be arranged under the supervision of a designated staff member, culminating in the preparation of an extensive research paper. May be repeated for additional credit, with a different project.
Credits Awarded:  1-4
Terms Offered:  As Needed
Prerequisites:  Permission of department chairperson

AES 494 - Capstone Seminar
This course consists of either an internship, approved by the AES director, in which; 1) students are immersed in a U.S. ethnic minority culture or; 2) an extensive research project focusing on one of the ethnic minority groups in the United States. The project can take either an interdisciplinary or disciplinary approach. It must be approved by the AES director prior to the student beginning any formal research and must adhere to all aspects of the institution’s formal research protocol.
Credits Awarded:  4
Terms Offered:  As Needed
Prerequisites:  Permission of department chairperson
