ART AND ART HISTORY

The Department of Art and Art History is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design.

The Department of Art and Art History offers concentrations in studio (painting, drawing, sculpture, photography, ceramics), art history and art education and is one of the elite departments in the nation accredited in all three of these areas.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Course offerings in the Department of Art and Art History are structured in form, content and sequence to provide a foundation in the fine arts for both the art student and the liberal arts student. The curriculum affords opportunities for study and creative work in the visual arts through studio practice and art history.

The Department of Art and Art History faculty members are teaching, producing and research oriented artists and art historians.

The department offers assistantships to qualified upper level students.

Students majoring in art and art history at Hope College participate in a wide variety of activities:

• Apprenticeships in New York City, Chicago and through The Philadelphia Center
• Contact with visiting artists and lecturers of national importance
• Field trips to museums, such as those in Chicago and Detroit
• Exhibition experience in the De Pree Gallery
• Entrance in competitive shows
• Funded summer research opportunities with department faculty and the Borgeson Artist in Residence
• Varied contact with other college art departments

Graduates of this department have gone into the following areas:

• Graduate work in studio and art history
• Practicing fine arts, sculpture, painting, printmaking and photography
• Teaching in the college, secondary and elementary levels
• Graphic design industry
• Furniture design industry
• Arts administration
• Art gallery management
• Museum work
• Publishing industry
• Auction houses

MAJORS

A major consists of at least 45 credits of art in studio art or 38 credits in art history.

Art Education

In partnership with the Hope College Department of Education, the Department of Art offers a major in visual arts education. This major qualifies students for K-12 certification, by the State of Michigan, to teach art in elementary and secondary schools.

The major consists of 57 credits as follows (no minor is required):

Courses in art history (12 credits):

• Art 111 is required
• Four credits in Art 231, 232, 233 or 295
• Four credits in either Art 241 or Art 242 (242 strongly recommended)
• Students should refer to the department's web page for policies about substituting art history courses taken through off-campus programs for major or minor requirements.

Courses in studio art (33 credits):

• Required foundational studio courses (24 credits): Art 105, Art 113, Art 114, Art 115, Art 116, Art 117, Art 118, Art 119 or 120
• Required 200-level studio courses (6 credits): The student will choose from two of the following three blocks of courses totaling eight credits. Students must choose one course from Block A and one course from either Block B or Block C.
  ° Block A: 3D courses: Sculpture 2 and Ceramics 2 (Ceramics 2 strongly recommended)
  ° Block B: 2D courses: Painting 2 and Photography 2
  ° Block C: 2D courses: Design 2, Drawing 2 and Figure Drawing
• During their senior year, the student is required to take Independent Project Seminar (Art 365) in the fall semester for three credits.

Required art education courses (12 credits):

• Art 305, 306 and 307.
An art education major must present a comprehensive portfolio for a junior-year review by the faculty. This must be passed in order to continue in the program and will determine whether or not the department can make a positive recommendation for student teaching. An exhibition of his/her work is required at the end of the senior year.

Art History

Majors in Art History must fulfill coursework in the Department of Art and Art History as follows:

- ART 111
- 16 credits of ART 231, 232, 233, 241, 242 and 295
- At least eight credits of ART 360 or 361
- Three credits of studio art
- Senior majors are also required to take four credits of ART 494, the Capstone Seminar in Art History, in which a senior thesis will be written, submitted to the faculty and presented publicly.

ART 295, 360 and 361 may be repeated as topics change.

An Art History major must present a comprehensive portfolio for 12-credit, junior year and senior year reviews by the art history faculty. ART 242 may not count toward the Art History major or minor if the student is majoring/double-majoring in Studio Art.

A major in Art or Art History is expected to take related coursework in such areas as history, literature, music and theater. Students are required to visit museum collections and special exhibitions regularly. Art History majors should have reading knowledge of one foreign language. If graduate work is contemplated, a reading knowledge of French and German is recommended. For Art and Art History majors, foreign study and travel are strongly recommended during the student’s time at Hope. Students should refer to the department's web page for policies about substituting art history courses taken through off-campus programs for major or minor requirements.

French/Art History

In addition to on-campus courses in French and Art History, students interested in a double major in French/Art History should plan for a semester in Paris, Nantes, Rennes or Dakar (Senegal). These programs, administered by the Institute for the International Education of Students (IES) in Paris and Nantes, the Council for International Educational Exchange (CIEE) in Rennes and SIT in Dakar, will prepare a student for a variety of fields, including graduate work in art history, practicing fine artists, sculptors, painters, printmakers and photographers, graphic design, art gallery management and museum work, publishing and teaching at the high school and college levels. The program offers the following special features:
• French Immersion Courses at the IES, CIEE, and SIT centers in Paris, Nantes, Rennes and Dakar
• French courses at the local universities
• Housing in local homes as well as independent housing
• Field trips connected with the IES, CIEE, and SIT programs
• Internships

Students planning to fulfill their Cultural Heritage II requirement abroad must take both history and literature abroad. To fulfill Cultural Heritage I, they must take on-campus either IDS 171 or Phil 230 (Ancient Philosophy).

Students interested in this double major should contact a French and an Art History professor early to be advised on the proper sequencing of courses.

Studio Art

The studio major consists of 45 credits from a broad selection of studio courses.

Required 100-level basic studio courses are ART 105, 113, 114, 115, 116 and 119 or 120. Total 18 credits

For the 200-level required studio courses, the student will choose from the following blocks totaling 9 credits. 200-Level Course Block choices (student will choose 1 course from each block). Total 9 credits

• Block A – 3D courses: Art 215 - Sculpture 2 & Art 217 - Ceramics 2
• Block B – 2D courses: Art 213 - Painting 2 and Art 219 - Photography 2
• Block C – 2D courses: Art 205 - Design 2, Art 214 - Drawing 2 and Art 224 - Figure Drawing

During the junior or senior year, the student is required to take the following 300-level, studio courses:

• ART 365 – Independent Project Seminar, in the fall semester
• ART 350 – Art Studio Seminar, during the spring semester (required senior year)

In addition to the above studio courses, the student is required to take 12 credit hours in art history, including Art 111 and 242.

Students should refer to the department’s web page for policies about substituting art history courses taken through off-campus programs for major or minor requirements.

A studio art major must present a comprehensive portfolio for a junior year review by the faculty. This must be passed in order to continue in the program. Participation in the Graduating Senior Art Exhibition is required in the Spring Semester of the senior year. The expected ratio of the studio students' clock hour involvement, in class and/or outside of class, to each credit is three clock hours of work per week to one credit.

MINORS

Art History

A minor with an art history concentration consists of 19 credits in art, including three credits in studio, ART 111, eight additional credits of art history at the 200 level and four credits of 300-level art history. Studio majors may not count ART 242 toward both a studio major and an art history major or minor.

Art Studio

A minor with a studio concentration consists of 25 credits in art, including Art 111, Art 115, twelve credits of 100-level studio art classes selected from Art 105, 112, 113, 114, 116, 117, 119, 120, 195 and six credits of 200-level studio art classes.

Community Arts Pedagogy Minor

This minor is intended to introduce Studio Art & Art History students to the basic knowledge of teaching visual art in multiple social contexts through discussions, readings, projects, designing curriculum, and in-class teaching. Teaching visual art requires the artist-teacher to encourage students in visual cultural expression, contextualize contemporary visual communication, and provide a historically relevant understanding of visual literacy.

This minor is intended for students who are interested in working in settings such as community arts programs, museum education, and cultural centers. It does not lead to Michigan public-school teacher certification.

This minor consists of 16-17 credits, including Art 305, 306, 307, any 200-level Studio Art course, and any 200 or 300-level Art History course or the Paris May Term. Studio Art and Art History courses required for the Community Arts Pedagogy minor may not count towards both a Studio Art or an Art History major or minor.
ART AND ART HISTORY

ART 195 - Special Topics in Art
A course offered in response to student and instructor interest. Topics are not generally covered in the regular course listings. Course may be taken multiple times if topics are different.
Credits Awarded: 1-4

Credits Awarded: 2-4
Terms Offered: As Needed
Prerequisites: Permission of instructor
Attribute: The Arts I (FA1)

ART 395 - Special Studies
An advanced studio course not covered in the regular course listings but offered in light of student interest, faculty expertise or relevance to cultural exhibitions and issues.
Credits Awarded: 1-4
Terms Offered: As Needed
Prerequisites: Permission of instructor

STUDIO ART COURSES

ART 105 - Basic Design
Introduces students to the elements and principles of design and the digital tools of the Adobe Creative Cloud. Instructional methods include lectures, projects, online modules, studio work and critiques. Required for studio majors.
Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring
Attribute: The Arts II (FA2)

ART 112 - Color and Context
A studio-based, interdisciplinary course that examines the perception, theory and cultural context of color through the creation of 2D, 3D and digital projects. Studio projects are supplemented with readings, lectures and group critiques. Collage, the use of found objects, the monochrome and appropriation strategies are explored. The methods of Albers, Itten, Klein and Batchelor, among others, are studied. Emphasis is placed on connecting color, materials and meaning.
Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall
Attribute: The Arts II (FA2)
ART 113 - Basic Painting
In-depth exploration of the formal principles of direct painting. Working from observation, a variety of painting approaches will be examined through practice, weekly critiques, and the study of historical and contemporary paintings. The creation of meaning (formal as well as narrative) through the manipulation of value, color, surface and space is emphasized. Required for studio majors.

Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring
Attribute: The Arts II (FA2)

ART 114 - Basic Drawing
An introductory course that provides fundamental drawing experiences and information. Students will explore several approaches to drawing, using a variety of techniques and drawing media. Required for studio majors.

Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring
Attribute: The Arts II (FA2)

ART 115 - Basic Sculpture
An introduction to the expansive field of sculpture. While learning fundamental skills including woodworking, material exploration, assemblage, object investigation and casting, students will simultaneously learn about the history of sculpture and the formal and conceptual elements that surround contemporary practices. The class is composed of a combination of projects, exercises, studio time, research, lectures, and critiques. Required for studio majors.

Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring

An introduction to basic intaglio techniques, including etching, drypoint, aquatint and soft ground. Required for studio majors.

Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring
Attribute: The Arts II (FA2)

ART 117 - Basic Ceramics
An introduction to ceramics as a medium for creative expression. Coil, slab and wheel work are focused on in utilitarian and sculptural modes. Raku, stoneware glazing and firing are explored.

Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall Spring
Attribute: The Arts II (FA2)

ART 118 - Watercolor
Traditional and contemporary approaches to all water-soluble media, exploring fundamental techniques and color theory through still lifes, figure studies, outdoor assignments, slide lectures and demonstrations.

Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Summer
Attribute: The Arts II (FA2)

ART 119 - Basic Photography/Film
Using the camera as a visual instrument, this course examines the still-photographic medium as an expressive art form through the creation and critical study of black and white photographic form, structure and content. Camera required.

Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring
Attribute: The Arts II (FA2)
ART 120 - Basic Photography/Digital
Using the camera as a visual instrument, this course examines the still-photographic medium as an expressive art form through the creation and critical study of black and white photographic form, structure and content. Camera required.
Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring
Attribute: The Arts II (FA2)

ART 205 - Design II
This course builds off of the foundation of Basic Design with a focus on Design Thinking, Graphic Design and Typography. Students will further their understanding of visual communication and develop a practice of research, exploration, problem solving and creation of design solutions. The course focuses on Typography and the use of text and image in layout and publication design. Projects include branding, advertising and UI/UX applications. May be repeated for credit.
Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: As Needed
Prerequisites: Art 105

ART 213 - Painting II
Experimentation with direct and indirect oil painting techniques leading to further skill development and progression of each student's personal artistic voice. Readings, group critiques and the study of historical and contemporary paintings supplement intensive painting projects. Subject matter will range from the human figure to abstraction and exploration of recent trends in painting. Engagement with contemporary discourse in painting is emphasized throughout the course.
Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall
Prerequisites: Art 113

ART 214 - Drawing II
Continuation of Art 114. Experimentation in a wide variety of media is encouraged. May be repeated for credit with permission of the instructor.
Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Spring
Prerequisites: Art 114

ART 215 - Sculpture II
A continued investigation of the expansive field of sculpture. Projects, research, and exercises aim to advance technical skills already introduced in Basic Sculpture including woodworking, metalworking, casting, assemblage, object-making, material manipulation while also developing the student’s artistic voice. Content development and important issues of display, presentation and the viewer’s role pertinent to contemporary issues in sculpture are emphasized throughout the course.
Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall
Prerequisites: Art 115

ART 217 - Ceramics II
Continuation of Art 117, including work in both sculptural and utilitarian directions, elementary chemistry of glazes, and oxidation and reduction firing techniques. May be repeated for credit with permission of the instructor.
Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Spring
Prerequisites: Art 117
ART 219 - Photography II
A continuation of Art 119 with emphasis on camera skills, digital imaging methods, color photography, and studio lighting to expand the knowledge and experience of materials available to individual photographic expression.

Credits Awarded:  3
Terms Offered:   Fall
Prerequisites:  Art 119 or Art 120

ART 224 - Figure Drawing
A concentrated investigation of the human form. Working from direct observation, students experiment with a variety of drawing materials and techniques while considering the role of the figure in historical and contemporary art. Weekly critiques and discussions focus on developing each student's individual artistic voice.

Credits Awarded:  3
Terms Offered:   Spring
Prerequisites:  Art 114

ART 305 - Elementary Art Education Methods
This course investigates the many facets of creative development from early childhood to upper elementary. Materials and techniques suitable for teaching and supervising elementary art as a major subject are emphasized. Methods of guiding and motivating creative expression K-5 are observed, discussed and practiced. There is a twenty-four hour field experience in area elementary art classrooms. Educ 285, Educ 286, Educ 287 or Educ 360, and Educ 361 are highly recommended to be taken concurrently with this course.

Credits Awarded:  4
Terms Offered:   Fall

ART 306 - Secondary Art Education Methods
This course develops a foundational understanding of the nature and characteristics of creative development in secondary art students -- middle school through high school. A variety of common secondary-level art media and tools will be explored and evaluated. The course will also address differing pedagogical strategies and current best practices in art education aimed at developing both an informed personal philosophy of art education and an intelligent secondary art curriculum framework. Credits Awarded:  4
Terms Offered:   Spring

ART 307 - Field Experience in Art Education
This is a two-week stand alone field experience intended for the Art Education Major. In this course, students develop and implement visual art curriculum that emphasizes interdisciplinary integration for school-aged youth in non-traditional or community-based educational settings, such as after-school programs or summer camps. Organizational meetings will be held prior to the field placement.

Credits Awarded:  4
Terms Offered:   Summer, As Needed
Attribute:  The Arts I (FA1)
ART 350 - Art Studio Seminar
Synthesis of personal artistic voice through the creation of a series of artworks, aided by individual, group, and visiting artist critiques. Occasional assignments encouraging interdisciplinary experimentation will complement each student’s self-directed path. Issues in the contemporary art world are engaged through weekly discussions, readings, and writing exercises. In conjunction with their studio practice, students develop a professional portfolio including an art résumé, artist statement, and digital inventory of their studio work. Required for all senior studio majors in spring semester of senior year. Outstanding junior studio majors may be invited to enroll in the class based on a portfolio review, proposal, and permission of the instructor. Prior to participation in the course, seniors must have completed all studio and art history classes required for the studio major.

Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Spring

ART 365 - Independent Studio Projects
A student-driven seminar focused on the continued development of the artist’s independent creative vision. The student will, over the course of the semester, create a body of work that demonstrates a proficiency at both a technical and conceptual level. Class time is devoted to frequent group critiques, discussions of assigned reading, and local field trips. Outstanding junior studio or art education majors may be invited to enroll in the class based on a portfolio review, written proposal, and permission of the instructor. Required for all senior studio art and art education majors. The completion of all 200-level studio courses and Art 242 is highly recommended prior to this course.

Credits Awarded: 3
Terms Offered: Fall

ART 490 - Special Problems in Studio
Independent study for advanced students who can benefit by an additional semester of specialized work in applied art. Under special circumstances this course may be repeated for credit, subject to approval by the chairperson of the department. Advanced standing highly recommended prior to this course.

Terms Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer
Prerequisites: Permission of instructor
ART 111 - Introduction to Art History
This course introduces students to the discipline of art history by focusing on several case studies, chronologically arranged, to be explored in depth using objects of study as well as primary and secondary sources in a lecture and discussion format. Students will gain experience in critically viewing and writing about art objects and architecture, as well as an understanding of the function of these monuments in a historical and cultural context. Field trips are a required part of this class.

Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring
Attribute: The Arts I (FA1)

ART 231 - Medieval Art and Architecture
A period survey (lecture, discussion, readings, hands-on projects, fieldtrips, and research) of visual culture of the European and Mediterranean cultures from the 3rd to the 14th centuries. Cultural issues that are relevant today such as faith, race, disability, class, gender, immigration, and sexuality, will be discussed in their medieval contexts and how they bear on artistic production. Art 111 is highly recommended prior to this course.

Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Fall, every other year
Attribute: The Arts I (FA1)

ART 232 - Renaissance Art and Architecture
A period survey (lecture, discussion, readings, hands-on projects, fieldtrips, and research) of visual culture in European, Islamic, and Asian cultures from the 14th through 16th centuries. Cultural issues such as artistic theory and creativity, politics, gender, religion, love, and depictions of the body will be explored. Art 111 is highly recommended prior to this course.

Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Fall, every other year
Attribute: The Arts I (FA1)

ART 233 - Baroque Art and Architecture
A period survey (lecture, discussion, readings, hands-on projects, fieldtrips, and research) of visual culture of the 16th through 18th centuries in Europe, the Americas, and Asia. Cultural issues will be explored such as the role of art in the Reformation and period of Catholic Renewal, and the expression of cultural identity, especially as it relates to the missions of the Jesuits and Franciscans, the body, and the subversion of power. Art 111 is highly recommended prior to this course.

Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Spring, every other year
Attribute: The Arts I (FA1)

ART 241 - Modern Art and Architecture
A chronological survey of Modern art, architecture, and urban design in Europe and America from approximately 1750 to 1900. This course begins its critical discussion of modernity in Enlightenment France and continues to address alternate theories of representation up to the postwar period, including the work of Jacques-Louis David, Edouard Manet, and Henri Matisse. Artistic theories, aesthetic debates, and primary sources from the period will be critically examined. Art 111 is highly recommended prior to this course.

Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Spring
Attribute: The Arts I (FA1)
ART 242 - Contemporary Art and Architecture
A chronological survey of Postmodern art, architecture, and urban design from approximately 1915 to the present day, including the work of Jackson Pollock, Frank Gehry, and Jenny Holzer. Emphasis is placed on the theoretical underpinnings of Contemporary art and architecture, the diversity of artistic and architectural production and investigation into primary sources, and exploring new media of the post-digital age. Art 111 is highly recommended prior to this course.
Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Fall
Attribute: The Arts I (FA1)

ART 360 - Special Problems in Art History
A seminar focused on specific issues in art history related to the expertise of the art history faculty. Emphasis will be placed on the recent scholarship and methodology of a specific topic, as well as structured and independent student research that is intended to develop skills in conducting scholarly research. May be repeated as topics change.
Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Every Other Spring, Rotating with Art 361

ART 361 - Special Projects in Art History
A seminar focused on a specific project related to the preservation, maintenance, and display of historical artifacts. Such projects may include but are not limited to student-curated gallery exhibitions, published catalogs, and data and archival work on the permanent collection. May be repeated as topics change.
Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Every Other Spring, Rotating with Art 360

ART 399 - Art History Internship
Supervised practical experience in the preservation, maintenance and display of historical artifacts carried out at a museum, gallery, or print room in a program approved by the art history faculty.
Credits Awarded: 2-4
Terms Offered: Spring, Summer

ART 491 - Independent Study in Art History
Independent study for advanced students with considerable background in art history who wish to study a particular problem, class of object or method. Independent research is emphasized.
Credits Awarded: 2-4
Terms Offered: As Needed
Prerequisites: Permission of instructor

ART 494 - Introduction to Theory and Methods
This course will explore the development of traditional art methodologies, such as formalism, connoisseurship, style, and iconography, as well as innovative approaches derived from literary theory, political discourse, and the digital age, such as semiotics, post-colonialism, and thing-theory. Students will develop a portfolio of writing, applying these methods to works of art. Students will also lead discussions and give informal and formal presentations. Open to all students, art history majors must take the course as a capstone and will produce a research-based project of substantial breadth and quality, e.g. a 20-25 page research paper. Non-art history majors will produce a research-based project of their design in consultation with the instructor. Double-majors in art history and studio art are required to follow the art history capstone requirements.
Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Fall
ART 495 - Topics in Art History

A course offered in response to student and instructor interest. Topics are not generally covered in the regular course listings. Course may be taken multiple times if topics are different.

Credits Awarded: 2-4
Terms Offered: As Needed
Prerequisites: Permission of instructor
