ENGLISH

The program of the Department of English is designed to meet the needs of students who want to pursue the study of English literature and students who want to develop their skills in creative or expository writing. The two strands are closely related and complement each other fully.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Literature enables readers imaginatively to enter and share the stories, feelings and experiences of other persons. It presents, with beauty and power, perennial human situations and issues – problems of identity, purpose, relationship and meaning. The study of literature helps students expand their appreciation and understanding of literary works and their knowledge of the literary world. The English major with a literature emphasis is designed for students interested in secondary teaching, graduate school in literature or careers in such fields as editing and publishing, government service, librarianship, business, law and ministry, as well as students who just love books and want to improve their skills in reading and interpretation.

The study of creative writing enables students to view writing as a process of seeing and re-seeing the world. It helps them learn to value and express their own stories, to reflect on their lives and to believe they have something of use to put into words. The English major with a creative writing emphasis is designed for students interested in graduate school in creative writing or careers in such fields as editing and publishing, government service, librarianship, business, law and ministry, as well as for students who simply enjoy writing creatively and want to develop their skills further.

While the curriculum provides majors who wish to teach or attend graduate school the specialized courses they need, it also seeks to meet the needs of all students pursuing the broad aims of a liberal education. Courses in literature and writing help develop students’ abilities to read, to think and to express themselves logically, coherently and imaginatively.

Students considering a major or minor in English should take English 248 as early in their college careers as possible. English 113 or the equivalent is a prerequisite to all other writing courses.

MAJORS

Students considering an English major should consult with the department chairperson or another faculty member in the department before beginning to take English classes for help in deciding about the most appropriate course selections. Students preparing for careers in elementary and secondary school teaching should see the section below and consult the Department of Education website for detailed interpretation of major requirements for teacher certification.
English Major with a Creative Writing Emphasis

A minimum of 10 courses distributed as follows:

1. ENGL 248 – Introduction to Literary Studies. Students are encouraged to take this foundational course as early in their studies as possible and certainly before they enroll in 300-level courses.
2. ENGL 231 – Western World Lit I or ENGL 233 – Ancient Global Literature IDS 171, 173 or 175 may be substituted for ENGL 231
3. Two four-credit literature courses numbered 270 or above, at least one in British literature and at least one in early literature British pre-1800 or American pre-1850
4. A four-credit course in American ethnic literature (ENGL 282 – Survey of American Ethnic Literatures or a designated 37x or 495 course involving American ethnic literature).
5. English 253. Introduction to Creative Writing (recommended) or another four-credit creative writing course at the 300 or 400 level.
6. A four-credit creative writing course at the 200 or 300 level.
7. A four-credit creative writing course at the 300 or 400 level in genre different from #6 for students who did not take English 253.
8. A 400-level creative writing workshop.
9. A culminating course to be chosen from the following: another 400-level creative writing workshop; ENGL 360 – Modern English Grammar; ENGL 480 – Introduction to Literary Theory; ENGL 495 – Advanced Studies; or an internship.

Students considering graduate study in creative writing should include English 480 – Contemporary Literary Theory among their elective courses. They should take additional upper-level literature and creative writing courses so that their majors will total at least 44 credits and should participate in the departmental honors program.

English Major with an Emphasis in Literature

A minimum of nine courses, distributed as follows:

1. ENGL 248 – Introduction to Literary Studies. Students are encouraged to take this foundational course as early in their studies as possible and certainly before they enroll in 300-level courses.
2. ENGL 231 – Western World Lit I or ENGL 233 – Ancient Global Lit. IDS 171, 173 or 175 may be substituted for ENGL 231 or 233.
3. Four credits in writing courses numbered above 113. English 253. Introduction to Creative Writing is recommended. ENGL 360 – Modern English Grammar or ENGL 375 – History of the English Language may be substituted.
4. Six four-credit literature courses, numbered 270 and higher. At least three of these courses must be numbered 300 or higher and at least one must be at the 400 level (ENGL 480 – Introduction to Literary Theory or ENGL 495 – Advanced Studies). *In addition, these six courses must fulfill the following distribution requirements:

- At least two of the 4-9 courses is to be in literature pre-1800 (if predominantly British, such as ENGL 270 – British Literature I, ENGL 373 – Shakespeare or a designated 37x or 495 course) or pre-1850 (if predominantly American, such as ENGL 280 – American Literature I or a designated 37x or 495 course). ENGL 375 – History of the English Language may count toward this requirement but cannot be counted toward #3 as well.
- At least one of the 4-9 courses is to be in British literature (ENGL 270 – British Literature I, ENGL 271 – British Literature II, ENGL 373 – Shakespeare or a designated 37x or 495 course).
- At least one of the 4-9 courses is to be in American literature (ENGL 280 – American Literature I, ENGL 281 – American Literature II or a designated 37x or 495 course).
- At least one of the 4-9 courses is to be in American ethnic literature (ENGL 282 – Survey of American Ethnic Literature or a designated 37x or 495 course).
- ENGL 359 – Internship in English may be substituted for one of the 4-9 courses, but whenever possible it should be taken as a 10th course.

Students considering graduate study in literature should include Shakespeare and History of the English Language among their elective courses. They should take additional upper-level courses so that their majors will total at least 44 credits and should participate in the departmental honors program. They should elect ENGL 480 – Contemporary Literary Theory and ENGL 495 – Advanced Studies among their courses for the major and courses in history and in ancient and modern philosophy as cognate courses.

Students considering careers in writing and editing should take ENGL 213 – Expository Writing II and ENGL 360 – Modern English Grammar and should consider doing at least one internship, either with a local employer or non-profit agency or as part of an off-campus program. They should consult the Boerigter Center for Calling and Career or Professor Cole, the department coordinator for internships, early in their college careers to begin plans for including an internship in their academic programs.

Teacher Certification

In partnership with the Hope College Department of Education, the Department of English offers a teaching major and minor for certification through the State of Michigan.

The English Major for Secondary Teaching

The English major for secondary teaching is a minimum of 36 hours of credit distributed as follows:
1. ENGL 248 – Introduction to Literary Studies. Students are encouraged to take this foundational course as early in their studies as possible and certainly before they enroll in 300-level courses.

2. ENGL 231 – Western World Literature I or ENGL 233 – Ancient Global Literature. IDS 171 – Cultural Heritage I may be substituted for ENGL 231 or 233.

3. Three of the following five courses: ENGL 270 – British Literature I, ENGL 271 – British Literature II, ENGL 280 – American Literature I, ENGL 281 – American Literature II, ENGL 282 – Survey of American Ethnic Literature. (Either 281 or 282 may be counted toward the three, but not both).

4. Two four-credit elective courses in literature, numbered 295 or higher. Note: At least two of 3-7 must be courses dealing primarily with literature before 1800 for British literature and before 1850 for American literature. At least two of 3-7 must be in British literature and at least two in American literature.

5. ENGL 375 – History of the English Language or its equivalent or ENGL 360 – Modern English Grammar or LING 364

6. A writing course numbered above 113, chosen from ENGL 213. Expository Writing II or English 253. Introduction to Creative Writing or ENGL 279 – Creative Writing for Teachers or another creative writing course.

ENGL 380 – Teaching of Secondary School English and ENGL 381 – Field Placement are required by the Department of Education for secondary certification but do not count toward the major.

Students preparing for elementary teaching should see the English Language Arts Group Major on the Department of Education website.

MINORS

General English Minor

A minimum of 21 credits, consisting of: 1. 248; 2. 231 or 233 (choosing one of these is recommended). IDS 171, 173 or 175 may be substituted, with two credits counting toward English; 3. a writing course above ENGL 113; 4. 12 credits of literature courses numbered 270 or higher. For further details, consult the advisor for English minors.

Secondary Teaching Minor

A minimum of 24 credits, numbered 200 or above, distributed as follows: 1. 213, 253, 279 or 360; 2. 248; 3. 231 or 233 (recommended) - IDS 171, 173 or 175, may be substituted, with or two credits counted toward English; 4. 271; 5. 281; 6. electives in literature or writing to bring the total credits to at least 24. In addition to the 24 credit minor, ENGL 380 and 381 are required. For further details, consult the advisor for English minors.
Writing Minor

A minimum of 18 credits of courses on writing, not including ENGL 113. If arrangements are made in advance, credit toward the writing minor can also be given for internships which involve a significant amount of writing or editing and for courses in other departments which involve internship-type experience and a significant amount of writing. Students should be aware that the writing minor is not approved for teacher certification by the state. Because of the importance of directed experience in writing, students pursuing this minor are strongly encouraged to write for campus publications, assist with the visiting writers series and/or work on the staff of the Klooster Center for Excellence in Writing. Further details and advice about course selection, particularly arrangements for securing English credit for internships in other departments, may be obtained from the advisor for English minors. Courses counted toward a writing minor may not also be counted toward an English major or another English minor.

HONORS PROGRAM

The departmental Honors Program is intended to challenge majors to go beyond the minimum requirements by taking extra courses, developing an individual reading program, attending department colloquiums, and thinking about literature. In addition, the Honors Program is intended to foster intellectual exchange among students and faculty. Detailed information and application forms are available from the department interim chairperson, Professor Cole. Early application, even in the freshman year, is encouraged.
