LEADERSHIP

The Leadership minor is operated as part of the college’s Center for Leadership (CFL) to provide a relevant and vital leadership curriculum that equips students to lead faithfully and effectively in the vocation to which they are called.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Through meaningful coursework, practical experiences and mentoring, the Center for Leadership guides students to discern their calling, develop their gifts and grow as servant leaders.

COURSES

LEADERSHIP

LDRS 201 - Introduction to Leadership
Students are introduced to basic theories and concepts in the study of leadership. This course helps students become more self-aware in the context of servant leadership and in viewing leadership in terms of their gifts and calling. Students are challenged to think about leadership from a Christian perspective with the hope that they can use it to inspire, influence and impact their world.

Credits Awarded:  2
Terms Offered:  Fall, Spring

LDRS 291 - Theories and Fundamentals of Effective Leadership
This course helps students reflect on leadership theory and social identities with the objective of learning to use their own gifts and experiences to become an effective leader. Students explore the concepts of servant leadership. The course is also designed to help students understand others’ perspectives so they can be more flexible and understanding leaders.

Credits Awarded:  2
Terms Offered:  Fall, Spring

LDRS 292 - Applied and Experiential Leadership
This course examines how to build relationships to better lead and serve. It is an experiential learning opportunity that involves using the skills of problem solving, researching and interacting with a client. Students will learn about themselves, working with a team and other leadership skills. It is designed to give students the opportunity to positively influence clients and team members and to gain real-life leadership experience.

Credits Awarded:  2
Terms Offered:  Fall, Spring

LDRS 295 - Studies in Leadership
A course offered in response to student and instructor interest. Topics are not generally covered in the regular course listings. Course may be taken multiple times if topics are different.

Credits Awarded:  1-4
Terms Offered:  As Needed

LDRS 390 - Independent Study in Leadership
An independent study is a program providing advanced students in leadership an opportunity to broaden their perspectives or intensify study in a leadership area of unique interest.

Credits Awarded:  1-4
Terms Offered:  As Needed
LDRS 395 - Studies in Leadership
A course offered in response to student and instructor interest. Topics are not generally covered in the regular course listings. Course may be taken multiple times if topics are different.
Credits Awarded: 1-4
Terms Offered: As Needed

LDRS 399 - Internships in Leadership
Students integrate an internship experience with readings and faculty- and advisor-guided reflections and enhance their cultural, organizational, social, and personal awareness. Enrollment in the class is dependent upon students finding their own internship placements by working with staff in the Boerigter Center for Calling and Career.
Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring

LDRS 401 - Leadership Capstone Seminar
Students will reflect, synthesize, and articulate what was learned about "leadership" and "self-leadership." Further reflections will occur to guide the student in the transition between college and career. This course is for leadership minors.
Credits Awarded: 2
