PRE-PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

Requirements for entrance into professional schools vary so widely that students interested in specialized fields should consult professional school catalogs early in their college careers. To help students develop their program at Hope College, faculty members with special interests and knowledge serve as vocational advisors. Students are encouraged to consult these advisors and to visit Hope's Career Development Center in the Anderson-Werkman Building which contains extensive information about careers and other vocational information.

Pre-Professional Program Advisors

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Law</th>
<th>David Ryden</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Library and Information Sciences</td>
<td>Kelly Jacobsma</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Pre-Health Professions

- Chiropractic Medicine
- Dentistry
- Genetic Counseling
- Medicine
- Naturopathic Medicine
- Occupational Therapy
- Optometry
- Pharmacy
- Physician Assistant
- Physical Therapy
- Podiatry
- Public Health

Veterinary Medicine

Greg Fraley