WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES

Women’s and Gender Studies focuses on issues of identity and systems of power, through reflection on personal, social and historical realities.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Specifically, women’s and gender studies connects theory to self-awareness and social responsibility. Whereas historically, the voices of women and other minorities (including feminist men) have been muted, women’s and gender studies puts these voices at the center of the curriculum.

COURSES

WGS 160 - Women in a Global Society
This course seeks to investigate the broad spectrum of women's movements that thrive across the developing world. Particular emphasis is on globalization and development as well as women's interaction with neo-liberal economics. Third World feminist and womanist theories will be examined. Students will also encounter the impact that culture and politics play on women in the developing world. Cross-listed with Pol 160.

Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Once a Year
Attributes: Global Learning International (GLI), Social Science 1 (SS1)

WGS 195 - Women's & Gender Studies Topic
A course offered in response to student and instructor interest. Topics are not generally covered in the regular course listings. Course may be taken multiple times if topics are different.

Credits Awarded: 1-4
Terms Offered: As Needed

WGS 200 - Introduction to Women's and Gender Studies
In this course, students will explore and assess their own assumptions about gender, and examine the effects of sexism on all people. We will study historical and contemporary texts by diverse authors. At the heart of feminist pedagogy, students are encouraged to teach and learn from one another. Students will be challenged to grow and support communal growth in shaping a world free of power-divisions based on gender, race, class, citizenship, and country of origin.

Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Fall, Spring
Attribute: Global Learning Domestic (GLD)

WGS 295 - Special Studies
A course offered in response to student and instructor interest. Topics are not generally covered in the regular course listings. Course may be taken multiple times if topics are different.

Credits Awarded: 2-4
Terms Offered: As Needed

WGS 350 - Feminist Visions of Justice: Theory and Methodology
This course looks at feminist visions of justice, including ideas that impact students' lives, the larger communities in which we live, as well as in the world. Students examine their own theories and study those of feminist scholars, practitioners and activists. Emphasis is placed on contemporary issues and practices.

Credits Awarded: 4
Terms Offered: Fall
Attributes: Global Learning Domestic (GLD), Social Science 2 (SS2)
WGS 395 - Special Studies
