Teaching Fellow, Departments of Comparative Literature, English, and Fine Arts, Harvard University, 1994-99.

Lecturer, Miami-Dade Community College, 1993.

PUBLICATIONS

Books

Walt Whitman's Philadelphia: An interdisciplinary study of the relationships, reception, and representations of the poet in the context of Greater Philadelphia from 1855 to the present. Several essays in support of the project have been published (see below).

Revised Lives: Walt Whitman and Nineteenth-Century Authorship. New York: Routledge, 2004. An examination self-representation in US culture from the American Revolution through the nineteenth century. Drawing on studies of the history of the book, Pierre Bourdieu's sociology, and ethnic and gender revisionism, this book focuses on the processes of national development, the self-construction of authorial personae, and the reception of those personae by different interpretive communities. Special emphasis is given to Walt Whitman, but other figures are treated at length: P. T. Barnum, Frederick Douglass, Benjamin Franklin, Laura Smith Haviland, and Edgar Allan Poe.
