Articles concerning International Law:

Article argues about responsibility, when state officials commit crimes.

Article shows a system of international criminal persecution and proposes a system that would work better concerning sexual violence.

Article talks about International Criminal Law as in Universal term and raises question about this.

News Articles:
