Dear HASP members,

We miss you! We know this time is filled with disappointment of things we had planned and looked forward to, of daily activities and engagement with others that fill our lives. We are all struggling and grieving the loss of so many things, may we show and receive extra grace in these days. We encourage you to take the best possible care of yourselves, and to use this extra time to reach out to friends and family safely and responsibly.

I'd like to share with you here some thoughts from one of President Scogin's recent messages:

This is a loss.

Don't be embarrassed or ashamed about grieving this loss. It is sad. The Bible makes it clear that it is okay to grieve, but we should not grieve like those who have no hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13). So, as we experience this loss together, let's remember our HOPE.

The world places its hope in circumstance ... things like personal health, family, success, high position in society. But life is full of hardship, and what is hardship but a stripping of those things? When you lose the circumstances in which you place your hope, you risk becoming cynical, disillusioned and hopeless.

The one thing that is sure and solid is God's hope. And with this guiding us, we can look to the future with confidence.

We also grieve with HASP member, Eileen Nordstrom, on the passing of her husband, John Nordstrom, former HASP member, since August 2005 and retired minister, college administrator and businessman. John passed away on March 17, 2020.

CURRICULUM

Curriculum Chair: Sharon Arendshorst, snarendshorst@gmail.com, 616.335.3132

What a difference a month makes! As we look forward to resuming HASP classes at a later date, know that your curriculum subcommittees continue to do their work in preparing courses and identifying presenters for coming terms. They are mastering the logistics of committee meetings by e-mail and phone! Course coordinators are also working to reschedule canceled or interrupted courses into future terms. In April the Curriculum Committee will begin reviewing all the course proposals developed for summer.

I imagine that, like me, you have a bit more time to read now that we are all sticking closer to home. As you read and discover areas of interest, please consider whether HASP members might also enjoy that topic. Imagine yourself standing in our lovely new classroom leading a course, and then write up a proposal and pass it on to me or to a subcommittee chair. If you can't imagine yourself teaching that particular course, close your eyes again, and see who might be a good presenter to teach that topic. Again, share that presenter's name or any idea and we'll help develop a course.

Subcommittees continue to welcome new members to join in course development. If you'd like to explore that possibility (without making a commitment) call one of the subcommittee chairs and learn more.

We are also working to identify which of the cancelled courses from this semester we will be able to reschedule in future semesters. Kim Mendels and Don Cowie, HASP Treasurer, will communicate with members regarding refunds for cancelled courses OR the option to donate those course fees to the HASP operating budget. THANK YOU to those of you who have already suggested this. Please watch your email for further instructions on how to respond to this in the following weeks.

April 17 and May 15 Noon Series have been cancelled.

SIG (Small Interest Groups) - free, member initiated and directed groups.

For more info, go to hope.edu/hasp and click on Member Resources on the left column and scroll down to find Small Interest Groups dropdown.

- SIG Read, Learn, and Discuss: Our S.I.G. group, scheduled to meet on March 19, was cancelled due to Hope College's health/safety closure. As we are most likely "social distancing," with extra time to read and consider, I am suggesting the following items that may interest you over the next few weeks. First: a film of the 1965 debate at Cambridge, "the American Dream is at the expense of the American Negro," Baldwin/Buckley. Debate: James Baldwin/Wm. F. Buckley Second: For those of you unable to attend the showing of the film "I Am Not Your Negro" in February, the film is available on Amazon Prime. film trailer

Hope College continues to diligently monitor and respond to the COVID-19 issue and at this time we are still planning to run our two upcoming programs: Croatia and the Adriatic Coast: Lands of Contrast and Beauty, October 15-26, 2020 and Vietnam: History, Culture and People, December 27, 2020- January 7, 2021. Learn more at hope.edu/globaltravel.

At Hope College and at HASP we recognize that the world is so much bigger than the few blocks our campus sits on. The Hope College Global Travel Program (GTP) ran three travel programs last year to: Tanzania, the Balkans, and New Zealand. In 2020 we have two more travel opportunities: Croatia and Vietnam. With all our programs, we'd love to include HASP members and any interested individuals. You do not have to be a Hope alum to participate. Visit: hope.edu/globaltravel for more details on each trip.

Join leaders, John Tammi and Michael Boonstra, for an incredible adventure to Croatia and the Adriatic Coast from October 15-26, 2020. We have room for four more people. For more details check our Croatia website or contact Pat Van Wylen at vanwylenp@hope.edu or John Tammi at tammi@hope.edu.

Later in 2020 with professors, Fred Johnson and Scott VandeStoep, you can learn and experience the culture and history of Vietnam. This program runs from December 27, 2020 - January 7, 2021. For more information check our Vietnam website or contact Pat Van Wylen at vanwylenp@hope.edu.

HASP Facilities~

We hope most of you have had a chance to visit the new HASP office and classroom on the main floor of Anderson Werkman, before COVID-19 caused all our closures. We are so grateful for the generosity of all the HASP members who have contributed to our HASP Facilities Fund and made this new space possible.

The HASP Facilities Fund benefits us all by reducing our annual operating costs as well as enabling us to address future facility needs. Investment earnings are shared with the college in exchange for a rent-free facility on campus and numerous in-kind services (i.e., physical plant, copy and mailing center, computer and information technology support, etc.). This allows HASP membership and course fees to remain steady and affordable.

Fundraising is still active for this effort. If you would like to make a gift, we would love to know by May 1st, 2020, in order to properly recognize all donors at our annual meeting. Past and current facilities fund gifts of all sizes will receive recognition via HASP publications. In addition, there are two special recognition opportunities:

Donor Wall – Donors making leadership gifts of $5,000 (over up to five years) will receive recognition on a donor wall in the new HASP suite. Previous giving to the HASP facility fund can be counted toward hitting this threshold.

Room Naming Opportunities - A variety of naming opportunities exist for spaces within the new facility. Friends or families may join together to meet a naming threshold. To date, we have received naming gifts for the library, director’s office, and conference room. We are looking for partners for the classrooms, welcome and hospitality space, and work area.

All members are invited to make a gift or pledge via the HASP Facilities Fund gift/pledge cards mailed out in early December and are also available in the HASP office. Gifts can be one-time gifts or payable over five years, and be made via stock, IRA roll-overs, or deferred gifts through wills and trusts. Checks can be made payable to Hope College with HASP Facilities Fund in the memo section.

If you would like additional information on the donor wall and/or room naming opportunities please contact Kim Mendels, HASP Director, mendels@hope.edu, 616.395.7919.

Thank you for your support!

HASP Fundraising Advisory Group: Kim Mendels, Larry Lynn, Barbara Stegink, Terri Holden, Ron Mulder, Dave Vanderwel, Scott Travis.

To entertain you a bit, we thought we’d include another picture now that the facilities project is nearly complete and we are moved in. This is Kim and Amy at the Open House in February with your favorite HASP cookies! Our cupboards are full of cookies and we wish we could serve them to you!

Farewell from Amy Berarducci, HASP Office and Project Manager
(Amy read this at the March Monthly Program, tearfully☺)

Good Morning HASPers,

Where do I begin? It was 9 ½ years ago that I put my work clothes back on after staying home with our kids to start this job at 10 hours/week. That's nearly a decade, where has the time gone?

As Larry mentioned, I am taking a new position and will be the Executive Administrator at Pillar Church, supporting the Lead Pastor and Executive Pastor and being a part of the communication team. The decision didn't come easy, it was only after many sleepless nights, conversations with different people to make sure that this would be a good fit for me, prayers, and I guess my gut...that I said yes. The new adventure and the thought of trying something different are exciting to me and reinforces that the time is right for a change. Our son is going to college this fall and so sadly my afternoons won't include soccer or baseball games so that will allow me to work into a potential full time position.

A quote from Raymond Linquist resonates with me, "Courage is the power to let go of the familiar." Familiar. Comfortable. That's how I feel at HASP. I know you, I know what to do and when to do it (most of the time). When this opportunity at Pillar came to me, I thought maybe I need to let go of the familiar. I guess I feel like I'm getting the "holy nudge" to move on and let someone else enjoy this perfect part time gig. But it's tough to leave a good job that you love and that is familiar. I was visiting with one of you about this and her words assured me that this is a good thing, she said, "Amy, I left 2 jobs that I loved, but each time, it was clear that that was the path I was to follow." And that's my prayer for this new start as well.

I wish I could thank you all personally for the wisdom, experience and love you've shown me. You have been so gracious and kind. I have enjoyed getting to know so many of you and I'm sorry I don't know all of you. And who doesn't love the chance to buy $200 worth of cookies and coffee at Meijer in one shopping trip! I'm not sure I'll find a group that loves their coffee and cookies more than HASP! Even though I got funny looks while at Meijer with an overflowing shopping cart, I enjoyed serving you in this way as it reminds me of my dad who would definitely be participating in the coffee and cookies but most importantly the conversation that goes with it.

I am very grateful for the opportunity to be a part of this group. Over the years when I would tell people where I worked and explained what HASP was, I found myself saying, "I only hope I am half as interested in learning about new things as they are when I'm retired." You truly are an inspiring group and I do want to be like you when I grow up!

I will miss you all but please don't be strangers. One thing that this job has reinforced to me is that relationships are important. I know I will see you out and about in the community, because as my kids always say, "HASPers are everywhere!"

I came across this quote, author unknown...

"Life is about trusting your feelings, taking chances, finding happiness, learning from the past, and realizing everything changes."

I think that pretty well sums it up, but I'd be remiss if I didn't thank Kim, who was a friend before we worked together. She gave me a chance 9 ½ years ago and called me one day and said "Are you ready to go back to work?" after I had stayed home with our kids for 6 years in which those years were filled with taking care of our daughter who had cancer and epilepsy.

After considering her offer, there were 2 things I remember saying to her on the day I said yes to HASP:

- "Yes I'll take the job but I don't think I will do it forever", well I pretty much have done it forever but it doesn't feel like it and it was way more fulfilling and rewarding than I ever expected.
- And I also said "I don't want this job to come between our friendship, our friendship is more important than the job."

It has all worked out better than I could have imagined. She's taught me a great deal and has given me the flexibility to be with my family when needed. It has been the best 22 hour a week job I could ask for. We've laughed, we've cried, we've been frustrated, we've shared stories, gone out for wallet therapy, co-existed in a large closet called an office for 9 years and more recently moved into the beautiful space made possible by all of you.

This kind of friendship doesn't just happen. Even though we won't be side by side every day, our time together will be spent catching up on life and continuing our friendship bond. I did tell her though I'd be disappointed if she didn't call once in a while with work questions.

Kim is one of my best and forever friends. She has an enormous heart and always has a listening ear. I will miss not being together every day. She does a fabulous job for this organization and has worked hard to make HASP what it is today. I'm very proud of her.

Thank you HASP and Kim and God bless you all.
