

HOPE
SUMMER
REPERTORY
THEATRE

GOING TO THE THEATRE

STUDIO THEATRE

I am going to see a show
at Hope Summer
Repertory Theatre
located in the DeWitt Center.

The address is 141 E 12th
St, Holland, MI 49423.

I will follow the flags to get to the Theatre entrance. There will be two revolving doors and a large double door.
Either one I go through will get me into the theatre lobby.

If I go through the double doors, I will go around the corner to my right to get to the box office.

If I go through the revolving doors, the box office will be directly to my left.

I go to the box office to buy or pick up my ticket.

The person there will ask for my name to find my ticket.

My ticket tells me which theatre to go to, where I am sitting, and what time the show starts

Once I have my ticket, I wait in the lobby for the usher to take me and the other audience members to the Studio Theatre. This happens about 15 minutes before the show starts

While I wait, I can visit The Guild Store where I can purchase t-shirts, accessories, and treats that I can enjoy before the show. I can also ask the person at the guild store for a sensory bag if I need it.

I should also take this time to go to the bathroom since I won't be able to during the show. The bathrooms will be on the other side of the lobby from the Guild Store, where the double doors to the outside is located.

About 15 minutes before the show starts, an usher will tell us that we'll be moving into the theatre.

They will check my ticket before I head down the stairs and into the Studio Theatre.

Once I go down the stairs, another usher will be there to guide me into the theatre. They will give me a program that has information about the show and the actors.

Once I am in the theatre,
I will find a seat with the friend, parent, or guardian I came with and wait patiently for the show to start. I will try not to touch anything on the stage as I find my seat.

I will know when the show is starting when the theatre starts to get dark. Once the actors come out and the show starts, I will sit quietly and watch the show. I will remember that the actors can see and hear me, just like I can see and hear them.

I can clap or sign applause
when a song ends to show that I enjoyed it.

If I feel overwhelmed during any point of the show, I can use any of the tools in the Sensory Bag, such as the stress ball, the fidget tool, or the headphones.

If I need a break, a house manager will help me exit the theatre.

Once the show ends, the actors will come out for bows. I can stand and clap or sign applause to show that I enjoyed the show.

Other people will be clapping too. If this is too overwhelming, I can use the headphones in the sensory bag.

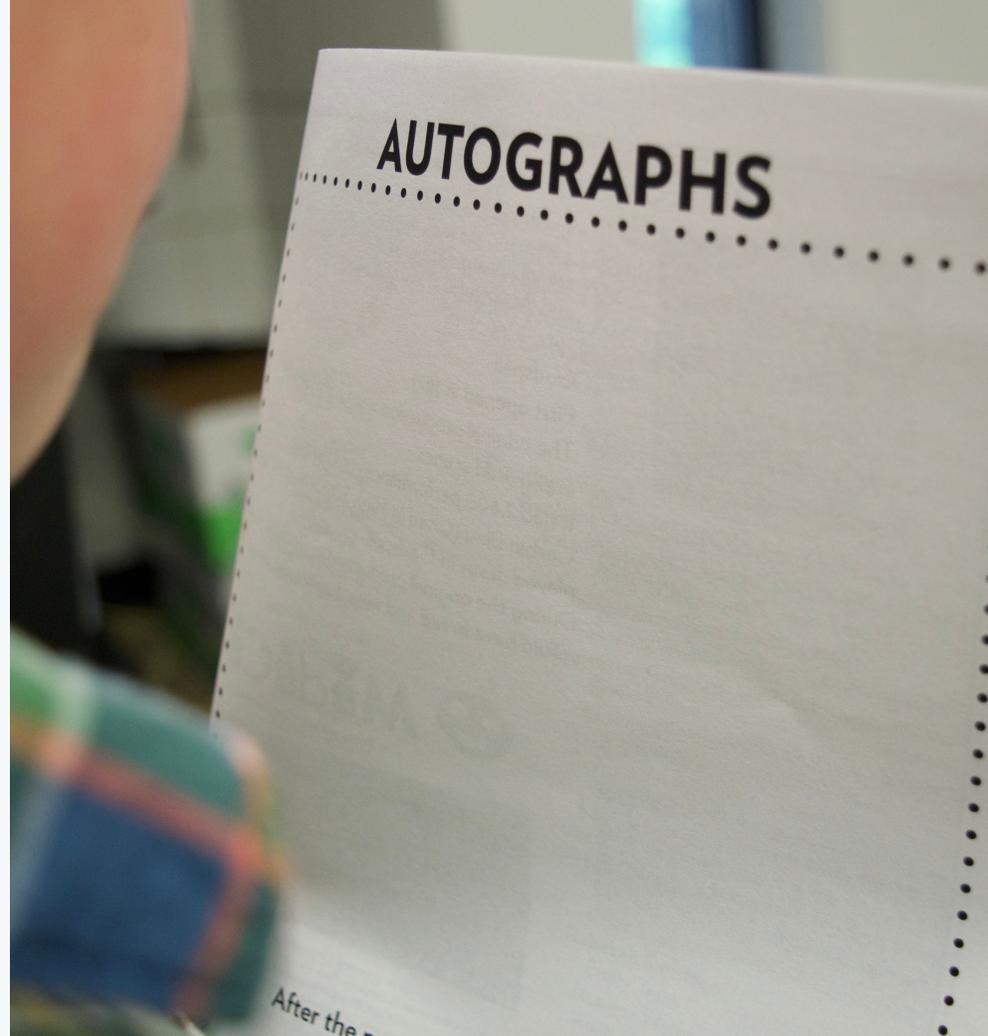

An usher will then help guide people out of the theatre and back up to the lobby. I will wait patiently for my turn to get out of my seat and follow my friend, parent, or guardian out of the theatre.

When I get to the lobby, the Guild Store will still be open, and I can go back to get any merchandise or food as well as return my Sensory Bag.

I can also go and meet the cast.
If I want to get an autograph or a picture with them, I will wait patiently in line with my friend, parent, or guardian until it is my turn to meet them.

Once I am ready, I will leave
the theatre with my friend, parent, or guardian.

SENSORY BAGS GENEROUSLY PROVIDED BY VERA BRADLEY

MATERIALS DEVELOPED IN CONSULTATION WITH BENJAMIN'S HOPE - BENJAMINSHOPE.NET

BENJAMIN'S HOPE

Vera Bradley