

SOAR

Spring Opportunity for Academic Recovery

Spring Opportunity for Academic Recovery is a free, voluntary program for first-year students whose Fall semester grade point average (GPA) is below 2.30

YOUR COMMITMENTS

- Make academics your highest priority.
- Meeting weekly with your SOAR advisor who will discuss your academic situation, help you with time management and study skills, and connect you with resources to foster your academic and personal success.
- Follow up on the suggestions and recommendations of your SOAR advisors.
- Allow your SOAR advisor to contact your professors during the semester to learn what suggestions for success they may have for you.

OUR COMMITMENTS

- Equipping first year students as they recover from a disappointing semester by providing weekly academic advising.
- Providing free peer tutoring, study skill help, time management training, and group meetings through the Academic Success Center and free support with research and writing through the Klooster Center for Excellence in Writing.

REGISTER TO PARTICIPATE

- 1 Send an email to hoisington@hope.edu stating your desire to participate. The deadline to sign up is January 6th.*
- 2 Once your participation is confirmed, you will be notified by the SOAR Director, Betsy Hoisington.
- 3 You will be assigned a SOAR Advisor with whom you will need to meet with the week of January 13th.

*Please note that spaces are limited and are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. This means that if you sign up, you must commit to the program.
