UNDERSTANDING YOUR CLASS SCHEDULE

Here are some general tips on understanding your class schedule:

- The printable term schedule lists your schedule for the first-half of the semester at the top and the last-half at the bottom. For more information about first-half and last-half classes, see the Understanding Your Class Schedule page.
- To check the number of credits you're registered for, look in the upper left corner of your printable schedule.
- Each class (for example, First Year Seminar is IDS 100) has a subject (e.g. IDS), course number (e.g. 100) and section number (e.g., in IDS 100-01, the "-01" indicates the section number).
- Some classes don't have specific meeting times, like private music lessons and ensembles. They appear at the bottom of your printable term schedule. If you're registered for a lesson or ensemble that requires an audition, don't forget to sign up for the audition when you arrive on campus.
- The interactive campus map will help you view your classroom buildings.

Visit the Understanding Your Class Schedule page for further information regarding your schedule.

QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR CLASS SCHEDULE
Or
TO MAKE A CHANGE IN YOUR CLASS SCHEDULE

We worked hard to honor your course requests, but due to occasional time conflicts and some classes being full, we were not always able to give you your first choice classes. In some cases we added a course you didn't request if it fulfilled a requirement of the general education program or a requirement in an area of your stated academic major interest(s).

If you have questions or concerns about course level and placement, receiving classes you did not request, would like to know what requirements your courses fulfill, or would like to make a schedule change request, please review the information on the Understanding Your Class Schedule page and then email or call us with further questions or requests.

Contact us between 8:30am and 5:00pm with advising questions at advising@hope.edu or 616-395-7840.
