

2017 Tuesday Tidings #3_6-6-17

Greetings! We hope you are having a great week.

REGISTRATION WORKSHEETS ARE DUE IN 2 WEEKS

Please visit the first-year registration resources pages to learn more about Hope's curriculum and to submit your registration worksheet (due Wednesday, June 21).

How does the registration process work?

1. You read through the first-year registration materials (set aside a couple hours).
2. You send us your course preferences on the registration worksheet by June 21.
3. Hope staff take time to review your course preferences and individually build your schedule.
4. By July 28 your schedule will be shared with you on your plus.hope.edu account (we'll send you an e-mail to let you know how to view it).

HIGHLIGHTED PROGRAM - Day1 Research Communities

In the Day1 Research Communities, you can gain new skills, work alongside engaged professors and upperclassmen, and tackle real-world problems through research that begins on day one of your college career! As part of Day1 you can

- Investigate water quality and help the local community address environmental issues
- Design a product to meet the needs of the community
- Learn professional geology skills while exploring Northern Michigan
- Discover a new virus and investigate its genome
- Live with other Day1 students in the newly renovated Lichty Hall during your first year

If you are interested, please visit the Day1 website to learn more or sign up.

DISABILITY SERVICES

If you are a student in need of an accommodation for a disability, please feel free to register with Disability Services by filling out the Request for Accommodations Form or by calling 616-395-7830.

As always, let us know if you have any questions or concerns. We look forward to hearing from you!
